APPLICATION FOR NON-DEGREE SEEKING UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

THE UNIVERSITY of TULSA

Enclose a nonrefundable $50 application fee and a final, official transcript from the institution most recently attended or your degree-granting institution. If you have attended more than one institution, additional transcripts may be required by the college advising office to verify that prerequisites have been met. After earning 15 hours, you must obtain approval from the college advising office to continue enrollment under a non-degree seeking status. Credits earned under the non-degree seeking status may apply to a degree program later if you submit an application and are admitted as degree-seeking. Non-degree seeking students are ineligible for Federal aid and university funded scholarships.

High school students who wish to apply to the Concurrent Enrollment program should request special application materials from the Office of Admission. Applicants for summer school should download only Application/Registration for Undergraduate Summer Session form from www.utulsa.edu/courses/schedule.
