SCHOLARSHIP

Interests: Capital punishment, constitutional law, criminal law, federal courts, federal habeas corpus, and prisoner litigation

Awards: University of Tulsa College of Law Outstanding Book Award 2007: CAPITAL PUNISHMENT AND THE JUDICIAL PROCESS (3rd ed. 2006) (co–authored with Randall Coyne)

BOOKS*:

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT AND THE JUDICIAL PROCESS, (co-authored with Randall Coyne) Carolina Academic Press (1st ed. 1994) (723 pages), (2nd ed. 2001) (1010 pages) (3rd ed. 2006) (1110 pages) & (4th ed. 2012) (1104 pages).

First published casebook on capital punishment providing comprehensive coverage of a number of issues, including the philosophical debate over the death penalty, constitutional challenges to the death penalty, the modern death penalty scheme, jury selection, capital sentencing, ineffective assistance of counsel, state appeals and post-conviction, federal habeas corpus, federal death penalty, and international law. The subsequent editions of the casebook involved substantial updates and revisions reflecting sweeping changes in federal habeas law, federal death penalty law, the scope of the death penalty in the United States, changes with respect to the debate and efficacy of the death penalty, and international law. The casebook has been widely adopted nationally and internationally and has been cited in numerous law review and journal articles.

ANNUAL SUPPLEMENT TO CAPITAL PUNISHMENT AND THE JUDICIAL PROCESS, (co-authored with Randall Coyne) Carolina Academic Press (1995-2011).
