PLEASE NOTE: The applicant is responsible for supplying OFFICIAL transcript(s) of all academic work (in Certified English) in your previous law school(s). All required application materials, i.e. official transcripts, two letters of recommendation, a complete resume, writing sample (brief, law review article, memorandum, or other persuasive or scholarly work), and $30 application processing fee must be received before the application can be processed. If you are from a non-English speaking country, you are required to submit your scores on the "Test of English as a Foreign Language" (TOEFL) before your application can be processed. Applications are reviewed as completed, but class size is limited. Approved applications received late in the academic year may result in your admission being deferred until a seat in the class is available.
