

Fall 2012 Graduate Research Video Competition Entry Form

Entry form is due in the Graduate School no later than October 8, 2012 at noon

Name of Individual or Team Leader:
Graduate Program:
Team members (if applicable) – teams must consist	of no more than four total members:
Area of Research/Scholarship to be highlighted in v	video entry:
Principal Investigator) must approve your video subbehalf of The University of Tulsa. If the submission data, the advisor should not provide approval of the material, students should meet with Dean Janet Hag them with the patent application submission process opportunity to patent TU research on behalf of the spublic audience, or inappropriate release of propriet	research is supported by an external sponsor then the omission for potential patent or proprietary data issues on a discloses ideas that may be patentable or confidential evideo submission. If there is potentially patentable agerty who will work with the student and faculty to guides. The University of Tulsa does not want to lose the student and faculty because of premature disclosure to a tary or confidential data. ding this proposed video submission and approve it. I will braduate School to ensure that it does not disclose ideas
Signature of Advisor/Principle Investigator	Date
I/We have read and agree to abide by all competitio advisor/principal investigator and the Graduate Scho
Signature of Individual/Team Leader	Date
Signature of Team Member (if applicable)	Date
Signature of Team Member (if applicable)	Date
Signature of Team Member (if applicable)	 Date