The Allen Chapman Activity Center (ACAC) is a 78,000-square-foot, two-story facility with an open atrium design; facilitating beautiful views of the campus. ACAC has lap-top wireless capabilities for the TU community, and serves as the "community center" for University students, employees, alumni, and guests. Immediately surrounding ACAC are seating areas with covered picnic tables and benches, and the spacious "Outback"--green space for relaxing, studying, or for planned activities. The building also hosts multiple services, meeting rooms, dining sites, as well as casual seating areas and study spaces. Users enjoy the many conveniences available to assist with their daily activities, social interactions, and academic pursuits.

Frequently visited areas include the vast array of food and beverage options available throughout the building. The Food Court, Bonici Brothers, and Carrello's Gourmet Coffee Kiosk offer personalized, made-to-order menus. The newly renovated Hurricane Hut "H2H Sports Grill" has waited table service immersed in TU Athletics memorabilia and live-action games playing on big screen TV throughout. Also downstairs is the full-service Post Office with personal mailboxes available for rent, the University Bookstore and Gift Shop, a satellite 24-hour Computer Lab., a Convenience Store, and an automated teller machine.

Students who want to get more involved with campus life, and student groups seeking resources for programming, should visit with the Student Association Officers located in the Administrative Suites on the 2nd floor of ACAC. Applications are available here for student awards, officer positions, and involvement in Homecoming and other campus-wide events. Other departments available in the Administrative Suites include the Catering and Dining Services, and the centralized coordination of Summer Conference Services. The University Club is upstairs as well and is a quieter option for lunchtime dining.

Open year-round, Allen Chapman is one of the primary sites for accommodating the event-related needs of the University and -on a more limited basis-those of community friends. Information about reserving space is available in the Administrative Suites on the 2nd floor of ACAC. Specifications about meeting space options, room dimensions and set-up diagrams, technical support, and possible dates can be discussed with trained event-planning personnel. ACAC hosts small workshops, group meetings, academic seminars, major speakers, live bands, symposiums, leadership conferences, religious gatherings, wedding receptions, and a whole lot more! From the Formal Lounge (which has a fireplace) to the Great Hall-seating approximately 600 people, ACAC truly is an "activity center/" Room Reservations and Agreements The "Allen Chapman Activity Center Reservation Policies Guide", the Event Planning Check-list, and various room request options are available in the Administrative Suites on the 2nd floor. These forms answer the most commonly asked questions about reserving space in ACAC, the adjacent patios, and the green space of the "Outback" and the "McFarlin Commons". In summary, to reserve any part of these areas, users are asked to do the following:

Complete and return a "Reservation Request Form" at least four weeks prior to your activity to ensure thorough planning and staffing of the event. Discuss needs for audiovisual and/or technical support, security, or after-hours special requests with the ACAC staff in order to predetermine what services can be arranged. Costs associated with renting outside equipment or scheduling additional staff will be reflected on your final invoice for services. If we are able to accommodate your request, you will receive a Reservation Policies Guide, a "Reservation Agreement", and a "Room Set-up Sheet". We will offer any further assistance needed to ensure the success of your program. To allow for adequate time for preparations, please sign and return the completed "Reservation Agreement" and "Room Set-up Sheet" ten (10) business days prior to your event.

Payment--if applicable--for room reservation is due ten (10) business days prior to the event.

Non-payment may result in reservation cancellation.

Summer Programs: Coordinators, coaches, faculty sponsors, etc. who are planning summer programs for camps, conferences, and workshops should contact the Director of ACAC at 631-5059 to centrally coordinate all reservation components. This includes contracting for beds, meal plans, and recreational and meeting spaces.

Food and Beverages at Events:

Those planning to provide food/beverages/snacks valuing $100 or more (in total) at their event or gathering are to contact TU's Catering Services at 631-2145 to pre-arrange for these services. The Catering Personnel can visit with you about all of the menu options or help you to create something special for your particular needs. Visit their offices in the Administrative Suites or their web-site at www.utulsa.edu/dining to see just a small sample of all they have to offer. In addition, please notify the ACAC Reservation Personnel of any food/beverage/snack plans so that appropriate space accommodations can be made for the event site.

For smaller events where the food/beverage/snacks in total value less than $100, the group may submit their request on the ACAC Reservation Form for review and approval. In order to be approved to Self-Cater in this category, the items must be pre-packaged by a licensed vendor (not homemade). The group is then responsible for providing their own serving products, for disposing of the waste, and for cleaning the room afterwards. Organizations wishing to have outside food donated are to contact--in advance--the Catering Services Department to submit a Request for Catering Exemption form, including with it a letter on the vendor's company letterhead. The Director of Catering Services and ACAC will review and determine the feasibility of granting this exemption. Groups receiving approval to self-cater an event are responsible for disposing of all waste by-products and cleaning the room. In addition, an Attendant Fee may be charged for providing guidance and directions for the event clean-up.

The Hurricane Hut--H2H Sports Grill, the President's Lounge, Formal Lounge, Great Hall, and the University Club are NOT rooms available for hosting self-catered events. The Food Court is not available for Self-Catered Events during their scheduled hours of providing food service.

Monday – Friday—24 hours, 7 days a week, 365 days a year

Director: Joseph F. Timmons

In an emergency affecting the safety of the residents or property of the University, security should be notified at extension 5555. Campus security patrols the campus and is available to respond to calls 24 hours a day. Twenty-four hour emergency phones are in blue boxes bolted to poles and marked by distinctive lights. These phones, which are direct lines to campus Security, are located north of Twin Towers, north of Sorority Row, south of Harwell Hall, and south of Chapman Hall. In addition, there are yellow phone boxes located throughout campus that provide both a direct line to Campus Security and a courtesy line for making on-campus phone calls.

Campus Security is responsible for the security and safety of the campus community. Security enforces parking and traffic regulations, and provides escorts at night to students who, otherwise, would have to walk alone to classes, libraries, meetings, and other University-sponsored programs. This escort service is also available to any student who is physically limited.

Associate Dean for Global Education

Applied Assistant Professor for Education Center of Global Education: Dr. Cheryl Matherly

Assistant Director: Wendy Sheets

Study Abroad Coordinator: Laura Semenow

Office Manager: Shanna Blount

Every semester students in our overseas program gain new perspectives, experience unique cultures, meet fascinating people, and visit unforgettable places. Most students remember their time overseas as one of the greatest experiences of their lifetimes. All things being equal, international experience, cross-cultural understanding, and mastering of a foreign language will give you an edge over your peers in ways that could not be achieved by staying home. You will undergo tremendous personal and intellectual growth. Your career opportunities and lifelong earnings will be greatly enhanced.

The University of Tulsa is committed to provide every qualified student with this opportunity to study and live overseas. To this effect, it will allow all your financial aid and scholarships to apply to the cost of studying abroad. TU has an approved list of universities and programs around the world where you can study. TU also maintains an active student exchange with selected foreign universities. You can choose to study any discipline of your major and minor in Arts & Sciences, Business, and Engineering.

Courses taken abroad can be approved to count towards your major and minor graduation requirements. Your GPA will not be affected by studying abroad as only credit hours, not letter grades, will be recorded in your transcript. Your study abroad plans should start in your freshman year. This will allow you the wide options of country and program selection, better planning, applying for study abroad scholarships and financial aid. Do not miss the opportunity to enrich your education and explore the world!

Alexander Health Center, 631-2241, www.utulsa.edu/alexhealth

Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.; summer hours vary

Director: Stephanie Fell, R.N.

Professional Staff: Mary Smith, R.N., Lana Gourley, P.A., Tarri Kennedy, R.N.

Department Assistant II: Kathy Parsons

Department Assistant II: Susan Johnston

The Alexander Health Center provides outpatient medical treatment for minor illnesses and injuries. The Health Center is staffed by registered nurses and a family practice physician is available on a part-time basis. A Women's Clinic is staffed by a physician assistant one afternoon a week during the fall and spring semesters. Students who wish to see a physician need to schedule an appointment. All students are eligible for physician and nursing services. Students are required to show their student ID and fill out a confidential health history that is kept on file at the health center. During the fall and spring semesters, there is no fee to see the physician; however, during the summer sessions there is a fee for a physician visit. A fee is also charged for medications, lab work, and minor surgical procedures. These services may be charged to the student's tuition account. Students are directly responsible for any medical charges incurred through referrals, hospital costs, prescription medications, x-rays, or services received outside the health center.

Health Insurance

The University has granted an insurance carrier the privilege of advertising its program among students. The insurance company will make available to students brochures outlining its program. Students who haven't received this brochure by mail may secure it from the Alexander Health Center. Students who participate in the program should recognize that this policy is designed specifically for college students. Therefore, some of the coverage and benefits may not be similar to those offered under regular family insurance programs. Your careful study of these policies is encouraged. Health insurance is not required, but is recommended for domestic students. Health insurance is required for international students, who must present written evidence of their coverage to the International Student Services Office.

Required Immunizations

The State of Oklahoma requires that all students provide written documentation that they have received vaccinations against hepatitis B, measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR). Students who are first time enrollees and who reside in on-campus housing shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease. For more information regarding these immunizations, exemptions, and waivers, please go to www.utulsa.edu/alexhealth.

Housing

Housing Office, Twin Towers, 631-2514, www.utulsa.edu/housing

Director of Housing and Resident Life: Melissa France

Assistant Director of Housing—Residence Life: Laura Powders

Associate Director of Housing & Dining Services: Paul D. Giessen

Assistant Director of Housing-Apartments/Property Management: Mark A. Bernhardt

Apartments

Apartment Office, University Square, 3rd & Delaware, 631-5248

Apartment/Property Management: Gordon Wilson

Upperclassmen, married, non-traditional, graduate, and law students have convenient and market-quality apartment options right on campus. University Square Apartments (USA) are made up of an Undergraduate Area, Law/Grad Area, and an intensive study area. USA apartments offer various amenities including microwave, dishwasher, washer/dryer hook-ups, walk-in closets, high-speed internet, extended cable, University/local phone service, and community swimming pools. Our traditional apartments provide a more economical option, including townhouses, traditional apartments, efficiencies, and the Language House academic living community. All apartments offer many safety dimensions including deadbolt locks, smoke detectors, and lighted off-street parking. Residents are expected to acknowledge that they live in an academic community and meet those community standards set forth in The Guide to On-Campus Living.

Complex managers for each area offer peer assistance to apartment residents, work in the apartment office, inspect the common areas and exteriors of buildings for maintenance concerns and implement community programming. The apartment community strives to provide quality programming that enhances community life by stimulating interaction among students.

Residence Halls

Housing Office, Twin Towers, 631-2514

Director of Housing and Residence Life: Melissa France

University of Tulsa residence hall living is designed to provide a comfortable home away from home and a challenging, fulfilling social and educational environment. Each hall is directed by a full-time professional residence director and supports academic growth in a variety of ways. Twin Towers has coed suite style living environment housing and the main dining hall. John Mabee has intensive study areas for the more serious student. Twin South provides a unique environment through the first year residential experience program, and the Honors House promotes a study atmosphere for selected Honors Program students. Lottie Jane Mabee is an all-female, traditional style hall. LaFortune House was newly renovated in 1999-2000. This is a coed, suite-style living environment with a live-in faculty mentor entitled "Faculty Don." Each student who lives in the residence halls is a member of the Residence Hall Association (RHA). This organization, which is the liaison between residents and administration, works to promote positive changes in residence hall life.

Liability and Renter's Insurance

The University does not assume any liability for loss, damage, or theft of any personal property, or for damage or injury resulting from; explosion, fire, mechanical failure of water, steam, or gas lines, defective wiring, or for the negligence of any other occupants of the building. Students who wish to protect themselves from the possibility of such losses should cover their belongings with appropriate insurance. It is to your advantage to contact an insurance company and obtain renter's insurance. Another alternative is to seek coverage under your parents' homeowner's insurance.

ID/Parking Center

Twin Towers Hall, 2821 E. 8th St., 631-3360; Fax: 631-3362, www.utulsa.edu/security/parking.htm

The ID/Parking Center handles University ID cards (pictures, production, and replacement), and campus parking permits (for faculty, staff, and students), passport photographs, and international travel IDs (ISIC cards). University ID cards are not transferable. Whenever a student is on University property or at University events, they must carry their TU Student Identification Card and should be prepared to present the ID card to University officials to verify their identity. Consequently, ID cards should not be lent to anyone at any time. Disciplinary action will be taken against students fraudulently using another's card and against the owner if the fraudulent use for the card was permitted by the owner. Lost ID cards should be reported as soon as possible to the ID/Parking Center during business hours to protect the account from unauthorized use. There is a $15 charge for replacement ID's. After hours lost cards can be reported to Twin Towers Dining or ACAC Dining personnel, which through their cash registers can put a "hold" on the account. A feature of the ID card is the "Hurricane Gold" debit account which is usable in most campus vending machines, most laundry facilities, the campus bookstore, most photocopy machines, ID/Parking Center, Business Office, and all dining locations on campus. More uses for the debit account system are anticipated in the future. This debit feature reduces the need to carry or keep cash on hand, greatly enhancing safety for all. The "Hurricane Gold" account is an easy way to buy on campus. Simply set an amount and prepay it on your account at the ID/Parking Center, located in Twin Towers Hall, or the Business Office in McClure Hall. Smaller dollar increments can be added to your account through automated transfer terminals in McFarlin Library, College of Law, and Allen Chapman Activity Center. Purchases will be deducted from this amount as they are made upon presentation of your ID card. When you reach your Gold limit, purchase more. Money in your "Hurricane Gold" account at the end of the academic year will be carried over into the upcoming academic term's balance. If you prefer, remaining balances are fully refundable at the end of the spring semester or when graduating or withdrawing from the University. If you fail to request a refund of any balance remaining in your account for a period of six (6) months after you graduate or withdraw from the University, the balance may be deemed abandoned property, in which case the balance will be remitted to the University, scholarships. "Hurricane Gold" accounts are not a credit card or checking account, but a non-interest bearing convenience account. Banking regulations and University policy prohibit cash withdrawal during the academic year. Any request for withdrawal of funds must be presented in writing. Your ID card has three types of technology on it; a bar code on the back for the library, a magnetic swipe on the back for meal plan and "Hurricane Gold" accounts, and a proximity antenna encircling the card for door access. It is important to follow some simple steps to insure the proper operation of your ID card.

Do not use your ID card as an ice scraper; it will damage the circuitry for the proximity array and also possibly break the card.

Do not wash and/or dry your ID card; it will make the card brittle and susceptible to breaking.

Do not run a magnet across the magnetic strip.

Do not punch a hole in the card to carry it on a chain. If you want a hole punched in the card please bring it to the ID/Parking Center and let the staff punch the hole in the correct location to avoid damage to the circuitry of the card.

Do not expose the card to extreme temperatures.

Mabee Legal Information Center

631-2404

Director: Richard E. Ducey

The Mabee Legal Information Center is a beautiful, new and highly functional state-of-the-art facility where independent and collaborative study, as well as high tech legal instruction takes place. Over approximately 400,000 volumes are housed in the Center. Some of the major primary source materials included are all federal and state codes, the National Reporter System, federal administrative materials, and microfiche collections, such as session laws for all 50 states since 1950, U.S. Supreme Court Records and Briefs and U.S. Congressional publications. The Center is also a selective depository for United States government documents. The Center and McFarlin Library have an on-line catalog accessible from either library's homepage. The Mabee Legal Information Center's homepage is: <http://www.law.utulsa.edu/library>.

The Mabee Legal Information Center has a large variety of Internet, and on-line legal research databases covering a wide range of topics including energy and environmental law, taxation, federal practice and procedure, Native American law, and international and comparative law. Access to several databases is restricted to law students and faculty, but most are available for general use. The Taliaferro Savage Law Library is a part of the Mabee Legal Information Center, occupying most of the first level of the Center.

Director of Research and Sponsored Programs: Lisa Thompson, 631-2716

Associate Director of Research and Sponsored Programs: Debbie Newton, 631-2192

Coordinator, Pre-Award/Human Subjects: Dawnett Watkins, 631-3310

The Office of Research and Sponsored Programs staff provides assistance for graduate and undergraduates who are engaged in research projects, as well as, those seeking funding for presentations at professional meetings. Individual, team, or group funding is available through research awards provided by ORSP. Funding is also available for professional presentations. Information and applications for the Student Research Grant programs may be obtained from the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs or from The University of Tulsa web site (<http://www.utulsa.edu/research/>) through the links: PreAward/Internal Funding/Student Research Grant Program. The Office of Research and Sponsored Programs (ORSP) is responsible for the administration of all research and sponsored program activity. Faculty, students, and staff at The University of Tulsa (TU) engage in a wide variety of research activities, participating in both externally-funded and University-funded scholarship. ORSP helps identify sources of support, provides information on program guidelines and procedures, assists in proposal development, administers grants and contacts, funds students research grants, and receives funding from various sources including private foundations, industry, and national and state agencies. Student research opportunities are available at TU throughout the pursuit of any degree and regardless of the form the pursuit of scholarship may take. As a federally funded research institution TU must provide certification for certain assurances (see the ORSP website: <http://www.utulsa.edu/research/> for the full listing). For examples, any research project involving human subjects must be submitted to ORSP for approval by the Institutional Review Board (IRB). When animals are to be used in research, prior approval must be obtained from the Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC). It is the purpose of ORSP to facilitate your interactions with our office and other administrative offices. You are encouraged to further your scholarly pursuits at the University.

Office of Student Affairs

Department Assistant II: Julianne O'Brien

Graduate Assistant: Carrie Heinrich, carrie-heinrich@utulsa.edu

The Office of Student Affairs offers a variety of social, educational, and cultural programs at The University of Tulsa. While one of the functions of this office is to provide support for academic endeavors, it also offers and encourages involvement in extracurricular activities to broaden students' educational experiences and to develop their interpersonal and leadership skills. Specific programs, services, and activities coordinated by the Office of Student Affairs include:

Commencement Exercises, advisement to Greek organizations, Multicultural Student Programs, Senior Salute, advisement to student organizations, advisement to the Student Association, University and Community Service initiatives, and the Leadership Education Program.

The Office of Student Affairs is also responsible for handling student conduct matters. Students seeking assistance with complaints of sexual assault and/or harassment may contact either this office or the office of the Vice President for Enrollment and Student Services.

Public Radio Tulsa

Public Radio 89.5 KWGS

Classical 88.7 KWTU

Kendall Hall, Room 160, 631-2577

Director: Frank Christel

Public Radio 89.5 KWGS, the first FM station in Oklahoma, is a 50,000-watt, non-commercial station serving northeastern Oklahoma and portions of Kansas, Missouri, and Arkansas. The station is professionally staffed and broadcasts news and information from a global perspective. Affiliation with National Public Radio provides opportunities for students to have their work aired by public radio stations nationwide.

Classical 88.7 KWTU, Oklahoma's first HD radio station, airs classical music and opera 24-hours a day. The station covers Tulsa with 5,000 watts. Partnership with the TU School of Fine Arts and Performance provides students opportunities to record campus and community performances and also have student performances aired.

Students from colleges within the University are encouraged to apply for employment at the Public Radio Tulsa offices, located in room 160 in Kendall Hall. Employment is contingent upon acceptance of a recorded audition evaluated by the Public Radio Tulsa professional staff.

Transcripts are free, as long as all financial obligations with the University have been met. Credit by exam and verifications of enrollment for student loans and insurance companies are handled in this office. This office is located on the First floor of McClure Hall.

Religious Life and University Campus Ministries

Sharp Chapel, 631-2546, www.utulsa.edu/sharpchapel

Sharp Chaplain: Dr. Jeffery C. Francis

Department Assistant II: Mary McKee

In covenant with the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), The University of Tulsa is committed to the full and diverse expression of religious life at the University. Acting on behalf of the University and its educational mission, the Offices of the University Chaplain provide for and support the ongoing articulation of the life of faith on campus: planning, implementing, and sponsoring religiously oriented programs; providing counseling and pastoral care; serving as liaison with other religious groups; leading ecumenical and interfaith worship services; and assisting the campus in nurturing a caring and respectful environment for diverse expression of the life of faith.

Sharp Memorial Chapel, home to the offices of the Sharp Chaplain and its nonsectarian ministries, shares the plaza with the McFarlin Library, Kendall Hall, and Tyrrell Hall. The University also is supported by a number of campus ministries that maintain facilities and programs of outreach and nurture for their respective constituencies. Each of these ministries adds its distinctive identity and voice to the interfaith conversation that articulates the religious life of the University. For more information regarding the activities and services of these organizations, please contact the individual listed as the campus contact.

Student Activities Board (SAB)

Allen Chapman Activity Center, Administrative Offices, Room 206

Coordinator of Student Activities: Steve Denton, Ext. 2585

The responsibilities of the Student Activities Board (SAB) include facilitating the registration of campus organizations, establishing a campus-wide calendar, and maintaining an updated list of all campus organizations and their advisors. The TU Student Association created a cabinet level position, the Student Activities Board Coordinator, to assist in this endeavor. The SAB chair is responsible for organizing student activities designed for campus-wide involvement and coordinating the President's Club, which comprises Student Association cabinet and senate members, residence life staff members, and officers of recognized campus organizations.

The Student Activities Board and the Student Association provide a variety of services to recognized campus organizations. These services help to improve the overall quality of student life at The University of Tulsa.

Organizations that are interested in applying for funding through the Senate Discretionary Fund or the Senate Contingency Fund must be registered with SAB. To register, organizations must have the following items:

- A completed SAB Organization Information form (with appropriate signatures)
- A current and completed SAB Programming Information form
- A completed Budget Proposal form
- A current copy of the organization's constitution or by-laws

All of the above listed forms can be found on-line at www.utulsa.edu/sa under "Student Organizations". Failure to maintain these forms may result in the organization being ineligible for funding or other benefits. Copies of the complete SAB/FAC guidelines may be found on-line at www.utulsa.edu/sa under "Student Organizations".

Student Association (SA)

Allen Chapman Activity Center, Second floor, 631-3130, www.utulsa.edu/sa

President: Danny Patten, danny-patten@utulsa.edu, 631-2728

Advisor: Steve Denton, Ext. 2585, steven-denton@utulsa.edu

The Student Association (SA) is the cooperative effort of all students and organizations on campus to make college life as exciting and rewarding as possible. The association goes beyond the basic concept of student government and sponsors everything from free legal services and lecture series to dances and comedy performances. The success of SA relies strictly on student involvement; students at TU are not only members of SA, they are SA. SA needs your feedback and help. Past experience and long hours of work are not required. To join the fun check with any SA cabinet member by going to the SA offices located on the second floor of ACAC or contact Steve Denton ext. 2585, steven-denton@utulsa.edu, Holmes Student Center, room 49.

Student Financial Services

Collins Hall, Room 1185, 631-2526, www.utulsa.edu/Finanical/Aid.html

Monday – Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Director: Vicki Hendrickson

Assistant Directors: Kristi Emerson, Sherry Zander, Billy Huggins, and Deborah Keys

The University of Tulsa recognizes the growing concern among students and their families about financing a quality higher education. To address this concern, financial assistance is available in the form of scholarships, grants, loans, and part-time employment. Students and/or their families may come to the office to talk with one of the staff. The Office of Student Financial Services staff assists all students demonstrating academic promise and financial need in meeting the costs associated with a quality, private education at The University of Tulsa.

Student Telephone Directory

Holmes Student Center, Room 59, 631-2328

The TU Student Telephone Directory is available free of charge to all students, faculty, and staff. The directories are distributed to the University community each year in mid October. The directory contains a list of on-campus departmental numbers for quick references, as well as coupons and discounts from area merchants.

Students who want their names and phone numbers withheld from the directory must complete a Request to Withhold Information form available in the Allen Chapman Activity Center administrative office, the Office of Student Affairs in Holmes Student Center room 59, or the Housing Office in TT beginning the first day of fall classes. Anyone living off campus must complete a Request to Update Information form to have their information listed. The deadline to submit changes or withholds is 5:00 p.m. the second Friday of classes of the fall semester. Updates submitted after that date will not be reflected in directory information.

Study Abroad Programs (see Center for Global Education)

University and Community Engagement Office

Holmes Student Center, Room 51, 631-2510

Coordinator for University and Community Engagement: Michael Mills

Coordinator for Student Volunteer Center: TBD

Department Assistant II: Julianne O'Brien

The University and Community Service Office co-ordinates University-affiliated community service and volunteer projects in the Tulsa community. Whether provided by faculty, students, or staff, the University encourages and supports such efforts. Individuals or groups wishing to consider such projects are encouraged to visit the office to explore ideas and discuss organizational procedures.

Writing Center

Chapman Hall, 1st Floor, 631-3131

Monday – Friday, hours vary

<http://www.cas.utulsa.edu/english/writingcenter/>

Located in Chapman Hall, the Writing Center, sponsored and staffed by the Department of English, provides free assistance to students in the form of individual and group tutorials on writing assignments and is also available for drop-in tutoring assistance on a first-come, first-served basis. Although the Writing Center is not an editing service, it can provide professional assistance in learning to find mistakes, fixing mistakes, and integrating advanced skills and techniques in all of your college-level writing. Students wishing these services should call 631-3131 for information and an appointment. Students are encouraged to use these services.
